LANDSCAPE PAINTING IN PROVENCE, FRANCE

Julie Houck

July 10 - 17, 2010

EXPLORE PROVENCE

We will be based at the restored Mas de Carissins in lovely St. Remy de Provence, the town where Van Gogh painted his famous "Starry Night."

Our daily excursions will take us out to explore charming Luberon hill towns such as Gordes and Bonnieux, the famous lavender fields along the "Lavender Road," as well as colorful market towns such as Isle Sur la Sorgue.

What Students Have to Say...

"Julie's plein air workshop in Southern France was wonderful! Her class and all the individual attention I received really helped me develop my own style. If you love art, beautiful scenery, European history, good food and wine, wonderful accommodations and service, you should definitely take this trip! It was one of the most memorable and magical experiences I have ever had!" - Michelle Winters, NYC

Join Julie for a very special week of plein air painting in Provence.

With the lavender fields in full bloom, this will be a painter's paradise!

"...Julie is professional, knowledgeable and encouraging. She teaches classical principles and not just a style or technique. Some artists can paint, some can teach, but Julie does both beautifully."

- Evelyn King DDS
Albuquerque, New Mexico
